AFFILIATED WITH FROSCH INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL

Greetings!

The last two-plus years have certainly challenged all of us, to include affecting our dreams and travel plans. We are here to help with that as issues slowly recede and the desire and ability to travel returns! We are excited about 2023 and the opportunity to operate tours that fully represent the travel experiences we are proud of, and that you deserve and should expect.

Established in 1967, American International Travel and Tours is a Colorado based company that continues taking pride in creating wonderful tours and providing excellent personal service. We are eager for travelers to explore new places or to gain a fresh perspective revisiting prior locales. As we move forward slowly into our fully lived lives, we welcome the opportunity to “show you the world” with our escorted 50+ adult group tours. From a day trip with High tea and athletes, to a cruise with exotic ports, destinations are happy to welcome you and share their culture, history, nature and more...

Personalized Service Since 1967

2022/2023 destinations include:

Delightful Colorado Day Trip (motorcoach) – November 17, 2022

As the weather cools off enjoy a day out as we begin our journey with a step back in time for touring and High Tea at Miramont Castle in Manitou Springs. It contains over thirty rooms of authentic Victorian furnishings and has a colorful history of secret passageways and is reportedly haunted! Our next stop will be the U.S. Olympic and Paralympic Museum. This state-of-the-art Museum newly opened in July of 2020 and is dedicated to American Olympic and Paralympic athletes and their stories. The USA Swimming and USA Shooting teams have their national headquarters on complex. A quick stop for homemade ice cream will complete this wonderful adventure.

Making Holiday Memories in Branson, Missouri (fly) – November 9 to 13, 2022

What better way to welcome the Holiday Season than with holiday music and heartwarming memory making?

Holiday lights and decorations will greet us as we travel back to simpler times in this unique entertainment city nestled in the Ozark Mountains. Highlights will include a visit to the Shephard of the Hills. Rated by the Travel Channel as one of the top five drive through Christmas displays in the U.S., their Trail of Lights features a series of story-telling animated characters surrounded with millions of Christmas lights. We'll sing along to holiday favorites with the Hughes Brothers and tap our toes at the Irish folk music and dancing of Daniel O'Donnell. Celebrate onboard a riverboat with a delicious meal and variety show, and delight at the full-scale living nativity at Dolly's Stampede. Pack your bags and let's get swept away with Holiday Cheer!

8-night Mexican Riviera Cruise (fly/cruise) – January 6 to January 14, 2023

With dinner and an overnight in San Diego we'll be rested and ready to board Holland America's newest ship, Koningsdam, which is the first in their Pinnacle class. Enjoy 7-nights sailing with ports in Cabo San Lucas, Mazatlán, and Puerto Vallarta. Nine restaurants allow for trying a variety of cuisines or just relax with room service to order. Multiple venues like B.B.

King's Blues Club and the World Stage offer nonstop world-class entertainment. Three days at sea will allow you to try your hand at the Casino or treat yourself at the Greenhouse Spa & Salon. Choices for optional excursions in these popular tropical cities include City Tours, Whale Watching, Dolphin Encounters, an Animal Sanctuary, Glass Bottom Boats, Deep Sea Fishing, Diving, Snorkeling, Horseback Riding, Private Cooking Classes and more. You may choose to remain onboard in port and enjoy shipboard activities or stroll the nearby towns at your leisure. Haven't you earned a relaxing adventure? Join us and get in touch with the sailor within!
